

Escaping Through Smoke

Fire Safety

In a fire incident, there are typically more casualties who suffer from smoke inhalation than burns.

IF YOU ARE IN A SMOKE-LOGGED ROOM

- Cover your nose and mouth with a wet cloth and avoid inhaling through the mouth.
- Get down, keep close to the ground and crawl towards the point of escape under the smoke.

